

A world converging within a generation

Presentation of the report prepared by
The Lancet Commission on Investing in Health

Mexico City, November 24th, 2014

Agenda

Event number	Time/venue	Event	Audience
1	15:00 hrs. (Lunch) (approximate duration 60'-90') Sala Bernardo Sepúlveda Ministry of Health, Lieja 7, Col. Juárez, Mexico City	High-level meeting presided by the Minister of Health, Dra. Mercedes Juan López. Presentation of the report by Profs. Dean Jamison and Gavin Yamey, followed by a general discussion to reflect on its implications for the Mexican health system.	High-level officers from the Ministry of Health, the Ministry of Finance, the Central Bank, prominent ex-ministers of finance, economists, businessmen and opinion leaders. (Max 15-17 attendees)
2	19:00 hrs. (approximate duration 60'-75', followed by an informal cocktail) (Room to be defined) Four Seasons Hotel Paseo de la Reforma 500, Cuauhtémoc, Juárez, 06600 Ciudad de México, D.F.	Presentation of the report to health sector stakeholders, legislators, academics and opinion leaders Presentation of the report by Profs. Dean Jamison and Gavin Yamey, followed by comments from 1-2 academics or opinion leaders, and a general discussion led by the Deputy Minister of Health, Eduardo González Pier, and Ferdinando Regalía, Head of the IADB's Social Protection and Health Division, to reflect on its implications for the Mexican health system.	Health sector civil servants/officers, legislators, academics, representatives of think-tanks, consultancies and multilateral organizations. (Approx. 70-85 attendees)